Workshop Report

Large Scale Painting and Drawing Workshop

A snippet from my first “Think Big! Large Scale Painting and Drawing Workshop” for the Münchner Volkshochschule as part of the Sommer Ateliers. Over 5 days I taught students how to take a project from the seed of an idea into a final large scale artwork. This is day 2.

On day three everybody started their own projects. On the final day we did a studio gallery display of everyone's projects. Great work was made by everyone and lots was experimented along the way.
